STATEMENT FROM ARGENTINA

Buenos Aires, Dec. 18.—Argentina will issue an official statement today which will be expected to modify the statement of an Argentine official in Havana yesterday that country stands ready to lend $100,000,000 to needy nations of the world.

The announcement of a Peron challenge to the Marshall plan was made in a press conference by Diego Luis Molinari, Argentine delegate to the International Trade Conference in Havana.

Molinari said also that Argentina was in a position to export 100,000 tons of wheat a month, which observers believed will be sold outright since Argentina has less than 6,000,000 tons of wheat a year.

Foreign Minister Juan Brambila refused to comment on Molinari's statements beyond saying that an official communication will be issued today.

BIG TRUCK LEAVES ITS PARKING PLACE

A big semi-trailer bread truck, which was left parked in front of Deem's Steak House early Thursday morning, rolled east on Washington street coming to a stop in Dr. W. R. Hutcheson's front yard at the intersection of College Avenue.

Fortunately, the big truck did no great damage when apparently the brakes failed to hold. A state highway no parking sign in front of the Hutcheson home was knocked over as about the only material damage resulting.

Local Woman Passed Away

Mrs. Amanda Agnes Merryweather, age 87 years, well known south Indiana street resident, passed away Wednesday afternoon at the home at 4:40 o'clock. She had been an invalid for the past thirty-seven years and had been bedfast since 1944. Her condition became serious last October 3rd resulting in her death.

She attended the Greencastle public schools and St. Mary-of-the-Woods. Before her health failed, she belonged to several organizations and was a faithful member of the St. Paul's Catholic church.

She was a devoted wife and mother and a kind and sincere neighbor. During her long period of illness she bore her suffering with great patience.

The survivors are her husband, James Merryweather; two daughters, Mrs. Ethel M. Lee, of San Francisco, Cal., and Miss Velma Merryweather, at home; two grandchildren, Miss Carolyn Lee of San Francisco and Richard T. Baldwin of Toledo, Ohio. Two daughters and a son preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's Catholic church with Rev. Francis Kull in charge. A rosary service will be held at Rector's Funeral Home at 8 o'clock Friday night.

Friends may call at the funeral home.

Roachdale Man Held In Theft

A 19-year-old Roachdale youth was arrested Wednesday night in connection with a burglary at the White-Poss garage in Parkersburg early Tuesday.

The youth, Robert Elmer Scott, Jr., R. F. D. 1, Roachdale, was arrested by Montgomery County Sheriff Harold (Bud) Zeller and Detective Sergeant Herman Freed, of the Lafayette state police post, at the home of Scott's father.

Young Scott admitted in a written statement, police officers said, entering the garage several times early Tuesday morning and taking money, gasoline, tools and a battery after his car stalled while on the way to work at a Lebanon body company.

Police recovered the tools and battery. No charges have yet been filed. Scott, married, is a former Crawfordsville resident.

GET LIFE TERMS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 18.—(UP)—Life prison terms for kidnaping were started today by two men convicted on kidnaping charges and sentenced in Vigo circuit court yesterday.

The men, Angelo Genco, 36, Harvey, Ill., and Sam Lucas, 33, Gary, Ind., were found guilty by a jury and Judge H. Dewitt Owens passed sentence immediately.

The men were charged with kidnaping the two co-managers of a Terre Haute supermarket last May, and robbing the market of $800.

Damaging testimony against the men was given by the managers, John Lubbenhusen and John Minderman, and the managers' wives, who also were held captive. All four identified Genco and Lucas.

INDEPENDENT VOTE IS NEEDED SAYS BALDWIN

NECESSARY FOR VICTORY
IN 1948 CONNECTICUT
SENATOR ASSERTS

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—(UP)—Sen. Raymond Baldwin, R., Conn., warned the Republican party today that it cannot win in 1948 without enlisting the support of the "alert, politically conscious" independent voter.

Baldwin, writing in the Republican, a national magazine, said that the number of "switch" voters was "ever-increasing" and that "they hold the key to success at the polls."

"It has been amply proven in the past three elections that the Republican party cannot win, nationally, with the votes of the regular Republicans alone," Baldwin said.

He urged party leaders to make the GOP the "progressive party of the country" by enlisting the vote of the independent bloc.

"These young people are not the radicals that follow the 'Henry Wallace line of thought,'" he said. "They are not reactionaries that follow the Southern line of thought. They are the average Americans, and they have no political homes."

"To these people a good record in Congress does not mean a vindictive labor bill," he said. "Nor does it mean isolationism; nor does it mean a 50 per cent 'across the board' reduction of taxes."

He said that most Americans are more concerned about the high cost of living, the prospects for peace and the housing shortage. The GOP must "do something constructive and immediate" about these problems, Baldwin said, "if it is to maintain itself as a majority party."

In another article in the magazine, Rep. Charles Halleck, R., Ind., said that the New Deal is not dead, but "simply has beat a strategic retreat."

Halleck, House majority leader, said Republicans must abolish "political spoilsmanship which has dominated and corrupted civil administration throughout the entire federal establishment during the last 14 years."

He said the party was pledged to conduct a house-cleaning in the "vastly overstaffed Washington bureaus," and said that "every citizen, regardless of party, can rally behind such a crusade to drive out busybody spendthrift bureaucrats."

Hunters Have Narrow Escape

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Dec. 18.—(UP)—Two duck hunters, almost given up for dead after being lost, four days in a dense flooded swamp, today related the stark details of wading up to their necks in swirling water before they were rescued.

Just 15 miles from the comforts of home here—an hour's journey through the Oconee River swamplands by boat—William A. Brown, 40, of Milledgeville, and Donald Hebbree, 28, of Atlanta, went through their ordeal.

The men were rescued Wednesday night after a sharp-eyed pilot who was circling over the tangled swamp in a last effort to find them spotted a wisp of signal smoke.

Brown, a local coal dealer, and Hebbree went into the swamp Sunday morning on a duck hunting expedition and got lost. That afternoon they began to note the menace of the rising Oconee. By dusk angry flood waters were swirling among the tree trunks and undergrowth.

Sunday night they were forced to take refuge on a damp knoll, making their boat fast to a tree.

Most of the night the men said they talked of plans to seek a passage through the swamp the next in their boat. But dawn revealed a bitter fact. The flood had swept away their craft during the night. They were marooned in a world of murky water and tangled jungle-like growth.

Fraternity Host To 20 Youngsters

Twenty underprivileged Greencastle children were entertained at the Phi Gamma Delta house Sunday afternoon, Dec. 14. The children were picked up at their homes by the students and arrived at the Phi Gam house at 11:30 a. m. For the next hour and a half, they were entertained by an instrumental trio, piggy-back rides, and stunts.

Following the entertainment, a Christmas dinner was served which included turkey and pumpkin pie. After the meal, the children were taken to the movies.

Upon returning from the show, the children were treated to an ice cream party. Soon, Santa Claus appeared in the person of Frank Tupper, Phi Gam president, and distributed his presents.

The evening was concluded with the singing of Christmas songs and the children were returned to their homes at 6:30.

Two Banner Ads Win Recognition

Last year, in the Christmas edition of THE DAILY BANNER, two of the advertisements received national recognition and were reproduced by one of the better known trade journals. The advertisement of the Greencastle Chamber of Commerce and that of the Metzger Lumber Co. were the Greencastle advertisers recognized in this way.

The title of the Chamber of Commerce advertisement was "Let's Make Christmas, Christmas," and commented on what Christmas meant to those living in Greencastle and Putnam county.

Metzger Lumber Co.'s advertisement was titled "Christmas In The Home," and the home in relation to the occasion was mentioned.

Both advertisements will be repeated by these organizations this year.

Mother Believes Daughter Is Dead

SAINDIAGO, Cal., Dec. 18.—(UP)—The mother of a 15-year-old heiress, believed held a love captive in the mountains near Mazatlan in lower California, said today she feared her daughter had been murdered by her kidnappers.

The daughter, Maria Jesus Yolarja Escobar, heiress to a $1,000,000 peso fortune, allegedly was kidnapped a month ago by the five Moran brothers, one of whom wanted to marry her.

Nazario Moran, Sr., 73, father of the brothers, was arrested for the kidnapping and Senora Capaceta, mother of Maria, said it was common talk around the port of Mazatlan that the brothers had killed the girl in reprisal for the elder Moran's arrest.

Villagers told her family pride demanded the killing to atone for the father's humiliation, Senora Capaceta said.

The Senora, accompanied by Manuel Acosta Meza, a Tijuana newspaperman, flew from Mazatlan and will go on to Tijuana, Mexico today. She said she was abandoning the search and going home.

"I still feel in my heart that my daughter must be alive," she said. "I can never give up all hope. But I cannot stay in Mazatlan any longer when they tell me my daughter died as soon as the father was arrested. The only law they know is the law of the gun."

PUTNAM COURT NOTES

Glenford Leslie is charged with assault and battery Dec. 13. In an affidavit signed by James R. Pingleton. It is also charged that a pair of glasses belonging to Pingleton were also damaged in the amount of $18.50.

Orders Release Of Jesse Michael

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Dec. 18.—In a ruling that may affect several other prisoners, Superior Court Judge Robert S. Baker has directed Warden Ralph Howard to release Jesse Michael from Indiana State Prison after a test case in the local court.

Judge Baker ruled that time spent in city or county jails by parole violators who subsequently are returned to prison counts against the inmates' original sentences, even though they are jailed on another charge.

Michael, originally sentenced to one to three years from Putnam County in 1944 for wife and child desertion, was paroled Nov. 1, 1945. He was arrested in May 1946, at Indianapolis on a forgery charge.

After spending four months in Marion County Jail, Michael was returned to prison as a parole violator and the forgery charge dismissed.

Judge Baker ruled that in figuring Michael's release date prison officials had to take in to consideration the four months he spent in Marion County jail before returned to prison.

Gromyko Still Sees UN Hope

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—(UP)—Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko of the Soviet Union said today the people of Russia, while disappointed with the United Nations so far because of American policy, still believe the UN can become "an effective instrument in the struggle for preservation of International peace and security."

Gromyko declared in an interview with the United Press that the UN's future hinges on the willingness of the great powers to cooperate.

He said, however, that the breakdown of the Council of Foreign Ministers in London would "not make the work of the United Nations any easier" and warned that an effective system of world atomic energy control may be impossible unless the United States alters its position in the UN.

Gromyko asserted that "somebody" has been inciting the Arab people since the United Nations decision to partition Palestine, but he said the violence occurring there was to be expected following the UN action.

LATEST WIRE NEWS

NORTHOLT, Eng., Dec. 18.—(INS)—U. S. Secretary of State Marshall left for Washington by air today, expressing concern over failure of the Big Four conference.

MOSCOW, Dec. 18.—(INS)—Russian shops, streetcars, theatres and other services today began refusing to accept the old Soviet ruble.

Moscow authorities, who on Tuesday began replacing ten old banknotes for every one of the new rubles, ordered that the old currency no longer be accepted in trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 18.—(UP)—The freighter Simon Benson, her seams threatening to burst open from swelling rice in her flooded holds, was limping today toward Honolulu after the ship started breaking in two in stormy seas 1500 miles north-northwest of Hawaii. Four rescue vessels were hurrying to the aid of the seemingly doomed freighter as her crew of 37 officers and men frantically dumped wet rice overboard.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—(INS)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin served flat notice today that Britain "cannot go on" in the Soviet-engendered "hostile" atmosphere that caused collapse of the Big Four conference.

Bevin spoke to the House of Commons at a moment when Communist party newspaper Pravda accused Secretary of State Marshall of responsibility for the breakdown.

Bevin termed the collapse a "great disappointment" and accused Soviet Russia of interfering in the independence of neighboring nations.

Pravda had charged that Marshall had "blown up" the conference deliberately as part of a scheme to "colonize" Europe by means of an "imperialistic peace."

Bevin told House of Commons that the breakup "created dependency in the world and handicapped the work of bringing about peace."

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—(INS)—The American Farm Bureau Federation adopted a resolution today opposing the re-imposition of price controls and rationing as one of the closing actions of its 24th annual convention.

Other resolutions proposed a coordinated program striking at the roots of inflation and a "hands off" policy in connection with the price parity system.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(INS)—The Senate today defeated 47 to 32 legislation which would have granted President Truman authority to allocate scarce materials as a curb on inflation.

The legislation, sponsored by Minority Leader Barkley (D) Ky., was offered as an amendment to the Taft stop-gap anti-inflation bill.

STORE CLOSING

Greencastle stores will remain open for Christmas Saturday, Monday and Tuesday evening and will close at six on Christmas Eve, it was announced today.

Bill Will Cut Income Taxes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(UP)—House tax chief Harold Knutson, R., Minn., will introduce today his bill to cut personal income taxes by about $5,500,000,000 a year. Among other things, it would enable married couples in all states to "split" income for tax purposes.

The chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee has also said previously that his bill, slated for action in January, would raise personal exemptions from $500 to $600 and cut rates all along the line. It is expected to drop at least 6,000,000 Americans from the federal tax rolls altogether.

The split income benefits now are enjoyed only by married couples in the 12 community

SEC. ANDERSON WINS FIGHT ON GRAIN RECORDS

CLINTON P. ANDERSON BE-FORE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE TODAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(INS)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson won his fight today against turning over to Congress his secret records of grain speculation without a special law authorizing him to make the information public.

Anderson told the Senate Appropriations Committee he would refuse to heed a subpoena ordering him to give the committee the names of heavy traders unless the lists were made public.

The committee, after more than two and a half hours of bitter wrangling in closed session, agreed to Anderson's demand for a law authorizing him to disclose the confidential records of grain transactions.

Committee Chairman Bridges (R) N. H., said the group voted to support legislation introduced by Minority Leader Barkley (D) Ky., giving Anderson authority to reveal the names of commodity traders.

Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., immediately went to the Senate floor to call for swift action on Barkley's measure.

Anderson warned the committee it would be setting "a dangerous precedent" if it insisted upon forcing him to surrender his confidential data.

He told the committee that President Truman will quickly approve legislation permitting public disclosure of the records. This was disclosed when the committee hearing on commodity investments by "public figures" was opened to the public after two and a half hours of bitter discussion.

Anderson and his aides were in conference until 1 a. m. EST, in preparation for his appearance before a not-too-friendly Senate Appropriations Committee.

Committee Chairman Styles Bridges, R., N. H., and other GOP senators also worked late into the night on procedure they would follow after the (9:30 a. m.) hearing. Determined to find out if any federal officials are making a "killing" on the market, the Appropriations Committee ordered Anderson to bring with him a confidential list of major speculators in grain and other commodities.

The secretary had rejected earlier appeals for the list, contending it would be against the law for him to make the names public unless Congress authorized it in a joint resolution.

Sen. Homer Ferguson, R., Mich., a committee member, said Anderson should be cited for contempt of Congress if he persisted in his refusal.

Anderson long has had a list of traders who have been involved in deals of 200,000 or more bushels of grain. Such information is gathered regularly by the commodity exchange authority.

The secretary has hinted that his list contains the names of some congressmen who are dabbling in the market.

Despite Anderson's veiled challenge, however, the Appropriations Committee voted 10 to 8 to take the unusual step of serving a subpoena on a cabinet member. The vote was strictly on party lines except for Republican Sen. Guy Cordon, Ore., who voted "no" with seven Democrats. Cordon explained later that he is still uncertain about the legality of making the names public.

Sec. Marshall Leaves London

LONDON, Dec. 18.—(UP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall will start back for Washington today to begin a new era of strained and difficult diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union. It has been three days since the council of foreign ministers collapsed in utter deadlock over Germany. Since then, Marshall has had important talks with French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin to decide what the West can do now that the East has turned its back. All of Marshall's top aides are convinced that the collapse of the foreign ministers meeting marked a historic formal change in Soviet-American relations. These aides conclude that the era of Soviet-American cooperation in world affairs, formally inaugurated at Yalta at the opening of 1945, now has formally ended. The period of cooperation that started at Yalta began to bog down almost immediately. It was further aggravated at Potsdam and now has deteriorated into a "cold war" between Russia and America for the domination of Europe. Soviet-American relations have been strained for more than a year. However, it was not until this last London meeting that the West formally decided to go its own way and not set a specific date for future attempts to reach agreement. Accompanying Marshall in President Truman's plane "Sacred Cow" are State Department counselors Charles E. Bohlen and Ambassador Lewis Douglas. They are scheduled to arrive in Washington at 9 a. m., Friday. Friday night, Marshall will deliver a radio report to the nation on his failure in London and probably will tell the American people where we go from here. Highlights of Marshall's address are expected to be:

1. Statements placing the full blame for the failure of the conference upon the Russians, exploding Russian accusations of deliberate American attempts to seek failure so Germany could be partitioned.
2. An appeal for intensified support of the Marshall Plan. Marshall does not expect any renewed effort to reach agreement with the Russians on any important issue can be tried until the United States can prove that the Marshall Plan is a success in the rehabilitation of Europe.
3. Disclosures on the trend of conversations with Bidault and Bevin. These involve the start of negotiations to consolidate the three western zones of Germany economically and, eventually, politically.

INCOME TAX BILL

(Continued from Page One) property states and Hawaii. With this privilege, a husband and wife can divide their earnings equally when figuring their taxes. Because tax rates are stiffer in higher brackets, the split often means that their combined tax is less than if either had paid the whole bill. Treasury figures show that on the basis of present tax rates, more than 4,000,000 couples would save a total of $700,000,000 if the 50-50 community property plan were nationwide. Most of the benefits, however, would be reaped by couples in the higher brackets. Those with a net income before exemptions of less than $4,000 would save nothing by splitting income. The reason: $4,000 is the upper limit of the first surtax bracket, and splitting income would not take you out of that bracket.

U. S. CITIZEN KILLED IN PALESTINE STRIFE

JERUSALEM, Dec. 18.—(UP)—The Jewish Haganah defense force has put a small air force into action to make mercy flights to isolated Jewish settlements in the Holy Land, reliable but unconfirmed reports said today. These reports said one of the planes was used to fly medical supplies and doctors into two settlements in the Negev, the southern desert region. On the return flight the plane brought a wounded man to a Tel Aviv hospital. Authorities reported that the strife between Arabs and Jews has brought death to a United States citizen, whose body was found riddled with bullets and wrapped in a sack in the Silwan valley, at the foot of the Mount of Olives. An American passport found on the body identified the victim as Israel Cohen Sheiber, 76.

FEAR FOR BILL
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18. (UP) — Senate Republicans expressed fear today that their anti-inflation bill would be talked to death by Democrats. The Democrats, in turn, complained that the Republicans were too anxious to adjourn for Christmas and were unwilling to support a measure with enough teeth to halt the rise in prices.

In any event, prospects were fading for passage of the measure by both House and Senate before tomorrow's scheduled adjournment.

Sen. Robert A. Taft, R. O., sponsor of the bill and Republican policy chief in the Senate, said the debate would continue although he was not optimistic about chances for speedy action. He expressed belief that the Democrats had decided to block it through prolonged talking under the Senate's liberal rules of debate.

House Republican leaders were holding the door open for House action on the bill but were uncertain whether it could be passed unless the Senate acted early this afternoon.

Awaiting a Senate vote first, an amendment offered by Senate Democratic Leader Alben W. Barkley to give the administration power to compel allocations of scarce industrial materials.

The Taft bill would permit industries to allocate materials by voluntary agreement. Their agreements would be exempt from anti-trust prosecution if approved by the President.

county soldier whose body has returned home for burial. The annual Christmas party will be held at the Legion Home Monday night, Dec. 22. All legionnaires, auxiliary members and their families please be there. There will be a Christmas program and Santa Claus will be there with treats.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. If you're constantly plagued with aching and burning, sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
